

the town paint pink

10TH ANNIVERSARY

Mile of Pink at Harbor Point

Saturday, September 27

11:00 a.m.

Commons Park at Harbor Point, Stamford

Join Stamford Mayor David Martin and show your support for local breast cancer survivors. Gather in the park and literally "Paint the Town Pink" in our most visible display to promote breast cancer awareness. Participants can visit the merchants of Harbor Point and downtown Stamford by hopping on the trolley and making the loop. Don't forget to wear pink!

To purchase your $10 Paint the Town Pink t-shirt, visit one of the following locations:

- Bennett Cancer Center, 30 Shelburne Road, Stamford
- Darien Imaging Center, 6 Thorndal Circle, Suite 104, Darien
- New Wave Seafood, 81 Camp Avenue, Stamford
- Women's Breast Center at the Tully Health Center
32 Strawberry Hill Court, Stamford

 STAMFORD HOSPITAL
The Regional Center for Health
affiliate Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons member NewYork-Presbyterian Healthcare System
A Planetree Hospital

hope
in motion | BENNETT CANCER CENTER
STAMFORD HOSPITAL

As part of Hope in Motion, an ongoing fundraising campaign to support the programs and services of the Bennett Cancer Center, all proceeds from Paint the Town Pink events will be used to help provide free screening mammograms for low income women who are uninsured.

For more information, visit PaintTheTownPinkStamford.org

Paint the Town Pink is a registered trademark of Breast Cancer Network of Strength and is being used under license.