

Carl Schumann

Carl Schumann lives in Fairfield, CT. He has been making landscape paintings, collages, hand colored photos and various graphic designs for over twenty years. His work has been featured in The Limited Stores Corporate Collection, The New York Mets, and the Maritime Center of Norwalk, CT. His poster “More Than This” is published by Haddad’s Fine Arts of California. His work is in the private collection of U.S. Ambassador Lanpher, rock star Bryan Ferry, and the widow of New York Yankees baseball great, Mrs. Roger Maris. In 1994, Carl was honored by the U.S. State Department for participation in their “Art in the Embassy Program.” In 2011 he was a finalist in the ‘Elvis-1956’ online, world-wide art contest.

Carl has been teaching graphic design and fine arts at the college level for the past thirteen years and is currently teaching four courses at Sacred Heart University.
