

Jane Ubell-Meyer

Painting for Jane Ubell-Meyer is transference of energy. Her work is a process that allows her to explore color and hues as an expression of her vibrational levels. When she paints she connects spiritually to the vibration of colors. With every pigment Jane chooses, she hopes that she successfully conveys her current inner being and touches others.

Jane received her BFA from Colorado College and from there traveled to UCLA in Westwood, CA for her graduate studies. Jane's paintings have appeared in many exhibitions and private collections across the U.S.
